

Clark County, Indiana boasts some of the fastest growing government schools in the State. Parents of all religions send their children to these institutions to be trained in the best secular humanist education tax-dollars can buy. Students receive instruction protected from any religious talk of "Jesus being the source of all knowledge, truth, and morals." Surrounding by peers of like maturity the whole day, students are free to be whoever or whatever they want to be. Other schools in the U.S. are bad but Clark County Schools are different. There have only been a few arrests for sexual abuse here. After 7-8 hours a day away from the family receiving a godless education, Parents are encouraged to spend several hours an evening transporting their children from one ball field to the next.

Clark County is a great place to pursue the American Dream. With the kids busy, you can labor long hours and go into debt for all the material things your heart desires.

If receiving instruction in a godless worldview that provides no meaning for life leaves you empty, don't worry, Clark county has you covered. Drug abuse is booming in the county. Meth and Heroin can fill the void for a while. It doesn't matter if you live in a wealthy neighborhood or poor, you can find access to these poisons everywhere. The escape you get with this diminishing high will only cost your health, your freedom, your family, your dignity, and maybe your life.

If wasting away under the enslavement of narcotics is not your thing or even if it is but you still don't want to honor your Creator and give thanks to him, perhaps sexual perversion will work for you. Clark County hosts a festival proudly displaying abominations for all to see. Men exchange natural relations with woman for sex with men's anuses and receive in themselves the due penalty, herpes viruses, syphilis, gonorrhea, chlamydia, campylobacter, and shigellosis, as well as a variety of protozoal infections.

Whatever your preference for sexuality immorality, Clark County has something for you. If seedy, disgusting, shameful, and diseased is your thing, massive adult superstore Theatair X sales all you need for enslavement to soul damaging pornography. Most Clark Countians will be able to find all the debasing material they need on the internet, though. Men, teenage boys, and even women can abuse themselves at home or on their phones while contributing to the sex slave trade.

You won't have to rely on the computer to view skin, as women in Clark County love to dress immodestly. Dads shirk their responsibility and let their daughters dress like they bought their clothes at Theatair X.

And If shirking responsibility is your thing and you hate children, downtown Louisville has you covered. You can sacrifice your preborn children on the alter of convenience, wealth, and fear. Murder your baby and lose your soul at the same time. Welcome to Clark County!
