

THE BODY

In addition to diseases that ravage the body and lead to much shorter life spans for homosexuals, the physical effects of anal sex have been documented to lead to incontinence. A study in the American Journal of Gastroenterology reported that there is a 119% increased risk of fecal incontinence in men who have sex with men. In said study, fecal incontinence was defined as leakage of liquid or solid stool, or mucus, at least monthly. This requires men to use adult diapers or maxi pads after repetitive anal sex.

THE MIND

The Bible says that those who rebel against God by refusing to honor him as Creator are given over to debased thinking. Their minds become corrupted. Rebellion to God takes a toll not only on the body but also on the mind. The guilt and shame of sin, rather than being eliminated by parading rebellion under the banner of PRIDE, eat away at a person.

It has been well documented in various studies that those who identify as LGBT are diagnosed with mental health issues such as depression, anxiety, OCD, and suicidal thoughts at very high rates.

There is a popular argument that mental illness and suicidal rates are high because of intolerance. However, the European Journal of Epidemiology states:

“Even in a country with a comparatively tolerant climate regarding homosexuality such as Sweden, same-sex married individuals evidence a higher risk for suicide than other married individuals.”

THE SOUL

We only have space to mention a few consequences of rebellion to God that may happen in this life. Yet some may skirt through life fairly safely. So while we cannot deny the mental and physical effects of sin, it is the danger to the soul which is most haunting.

The God who is love says in 1 Corinthians 6: 9-10, “Or do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor the covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, will inherit the kingdom of God.”

He says, “Do not be deceived,” because He knows we can be so easily duped. The deception of our age is that we have convinced ourselves with silly slogans like “Love is love” that God is okay with our sin. We have not, however, deceived God. Because God is loving, He is also a just judge. His righteous love cannot allow rebellion and evil to stand. Therefore, do not be deceived. The unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God. The effeminate (that is, those who refuse to live as the sex God created them in their physical body) and the homosexual (those who lust after and have sex with people of the same sex) will not inherit the kingdom of God. Their souls are in grave danger.

There is one more thing that the Bible says about love that you must know. Jesus said “Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends (John 15:13).”

And Romans 5:7-8 says, “For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.”

THE HOPE

This is your only hope. Jesus Christ laid down his life in an act of love to take upon Himself the eternal penalty that sin deserves. Christ paid the penalty for sin to rescue those who practice the evil of homosexuality from the wrath of God and to free them from the power of it. He came to set free those who practice homosexuality and to show them what true love is.

This is why right after 1 Corinthians 6 says the effeminate and homosexual will not inherit the kingdom of God, it also says,

“Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.”

Many who were enslaved to the filth that destroys body, mind, and soul have been washed clean, declared righteous, and made holy. You can be too!

THIS IS THE GOOD NEWS OF THE LOVE OF GOD.

If you will repent--that is, turn from trusting in your own wisdom and turn to God, admit the depth of your sin without blaming anyone but yourself, and cry out to God for mercy while trusting in Jesus Christ, you will be forgiven and have the hope of eternal life. He will transfer you from the domain of darkness and into the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ-- The Risen and Reigning King! . Repent today, and turn to the one who is Love.
